NEXT YEAR'S LEAGUE

OLD BUSINESS

Varsity Only Football Games.

The league football coaches voted 6-2 in favor, the Athletic Directors voted 7-1 in favor. Item will move to the April Athletic Board Meeting for a decision.

League Basketball Tournament

The basketball coaches did not support a tournament, The ADs concurred.

Pre-season Barbeque

It was decided to have a dinner/meeting prior to the start of each sport. Jason Feuerbach will secure the same facility for all three. It was decided to have the bill sent to the host school. Each school will pay the host 1/8 of the cost.

NEW BUSINESS

An All Conference Committee Report was given by Jamie Bunch. The report was generally accepted by the Ads and will be sent forward to the April Athletic Board Meeting as a first reading.

The Ads agreed that there should be a penalty for ejection at last game. The consensus was that the person ejected (coach/player) sit out the next CIF contest.

The Ads felt the number of League Passes should be 50 per school.

There was a short discussion about the current Admission Policy. The feeling was that all prices be raised one dollar.

OTHER

Many problems occur with Friday night soccer games. A motion carried to change the play days for both Boys and Girls Soccer to Mondays and Wednesdays.

Friday golf matches present a problem with getting on most courses. The Play dates for Boys and Girls Golf was changed to Tuesday and Thursday.

Minor adjustments were made to the Basketball and Wrestling schedules
